Ignition unable to launch the application.

It may be down and stopping you from updating the Ignition Perspective app. You may be trying with wrong login credentials. Too many users using the app at same time. It may take some time for the app company / developer to process the payment and credit to your account. Your account may be banned or deactivated for activities. Finally, if you can't fix it with anything, you may need to uninstall the app and re-install it.
çÁÁÁ I'm having Ignition Perspective login issue or account related issues. You can use that feature to initiate a withdrawal request. Your wifi / mobile data connection not working properly. Check this out for how to fix WebStart. The problem is, the Ignition service has not had enough time to start and the client causes a popup to appear that says the application was unable to launch because it could not find the resource on the gateway. Edit that shortcut to include the command line options you need for your gateway and project details. You can see if that fixes it. If you don't have enough space in your disk, the app can't be installed. That just opens the launcher with no target or settings. If it is not enabled, please enable it. It is one of the most common problem in android operating system. Even in some rare cases, the re-install step also don't work. Most of the times, it might be a temporary loading issue. It may work normally. Good luck! There are few situations that may cause the load issue in mobile apps. This is a webstart client by the way. If you see the withdrawal is successfully processed and don't get it in your bank/paypal, contact the app developers / support.Support Email: [emailÄ Aprotected] Hello, I have enabled my application to startup automatically when the computer does a reboot. Usually when you open an app, you will see a black screen for few seconds and then app will crash with or without an error message. It may work after this. You can login to your paypal and see There are some money credited. If this is your case, try installing older versions of the application. Please check your mobile storage space. In your case, set appropriate values for timeOutsecs = and / or attempts = 2 Tanned Thank You Pturmel! That was exactly what I was looking for. Check your WiFi / Internet connection for connectivity. If none of the above works, you will be able to wait until the phone battery is drains and turns off automatically. An interesting note: I realize that I have two "clientlauncher.log" files. Please read the error messages. Please check your WiFi / Mobile data connection and make sure it is working properly. Try to reboot hard on your Android phone. There are few ways to correct this problem. If you have a video loading problem, check your Internet speed and Wi-Fi connectivity. The Launcher.log file: Error [SplashFrame] [13: 38: 28.616]: Gateway reported a temporary overload (Http 503 status code) Someone know what I'm doing wrong? Do not place the exe in your initialization folder. Is there an alternative solution for more than that's customer autostart? Thank you, Brandon Brandon1: This is a webstart client by the way. Android usually restores all settings after reinstalling and logging in to the application. One with clientlauncher.exe and another in the c:\user.ignition\user.ignition\data/clientlauncher folder (which is where the Å å € ¢ ¢ ¢ ¢ launch.xml) The clientLauncher.log that is here: C:\User.ignition\clientlauncher-date is reporting an error at initialization. Then release the buttons and hold the "Power" button until the screen is activated. Now you can try to open the application, it can work well. Now open the application again. Verify that the application you are trying to install supports your version of the After that, place it and press the ON / OFF button. Thanks for the response pturmel. You just need to press the Recent Applications menu (usually the first left button) on the phone. If you are using social networks to login such as facebook, twitter, google etc, check whether that service is working properly by visiting their official website. Works like a charm! Hi all, I have attempted to do the same thing, but I must be doing something wrong. Confirm that you have enough storage space in your phone to download updates. Ignition Perspective app may not be working for you due to some issues that your device may have or your internet connection problem.Ä A If you think that Ignition Perspective app has an issue, please post your issue using the comment box below and someone from our community may help you. Press and hold down the "Home" and "Power" buttons at the same time for upto 10 seconds. The Ignition Perspective server may be down and that is causing the login/account issue. Place it elsewhere, and put a shortcut to it in your startup folder. If not, please contact the development company using the contact details given below.Email Address: [emailÄ Aprotected] You can go to your account menu and then mostly you may see a withdraw option once you reach your withdrawal threshold. I did put a shortcut into the startup folder instead, and got the same behavior of çÄÄÄconnect error, trying againçÄÄÄ, and then eventually opening the client launcher but not the actual project. Check your phone volume if you have audio problems.Try to use headphones to find out whether it is an issue with your speakers or with the app. I have the çÄÄÄclientlauncher.exeçÄÄÄ in my startup folder. Please check your data connection. Please be patient for 24-48 hours and see if the amount gets credited to your account. Please confirm the details that you are entering is correct.
